

Welcome to 4th Grade Curriculum Night

Ms. Halsey and Mrs. Sweeney

Session 1: 6:30 - 7:05

Session 2: 7:10 - 7:45

Email and Remind App

- Website: www.exploregrade4.com
- Ms. Halsey: shalsey@wcpss.net
- Mrs. Sweeney: lsweeney@wcpss.net
- Remind App: Please take out your phone and send a text to the number 81010 with the message @halsween

ELA: English Language Arts

- 1st Quarter – Exploring Poetry, Poets, and What inspires people to write poetry? Love That Dog,
- 2nd Quarter – Researching to Build Knowledge and Teach Others (Animal Defense Mechanisms: Venom and Animal Behavior Animal Defenses)
- 3rd Quarter- Considering Perspectives and Supporting Opinions (The American Revolution: Divided Loyalties)
- 4th Quarter- Gathering Evidence and Speaking to Others (Responding to Inequality: Ratifying the 19th Amendment: The Hope Chest)
- Homework/40 Book Challenge

Math

- Operations and Algebraic Thinking
- Number and Operations in Base Ten
- Number and Operations-Fractions
- Measurement and Data
- Geometry
- Dreambox/Homework

Science

- Force in Motion - electricity and magnetism
- Matter, Properties and Change - earth materials
- Earth History - landforms
- Ecosystems - animal studies
- Earth in the Universe - phases of the moon
- Molecular Biology - benefit of vitamins, minerals and exercise
- Energy Conservation and Transfer - basic forms of energy: light, sound, heat, electrical and magnetic

Social Studies

All about North Carolina

- History
- Government
- Economy
- Geography

Field Trips

- Friday, 2/27 - Historic Oak View (chaperones welcomed)
- Thursday, 3/19 - NC Symphony Trip (no chaperones allowed)
- Please register to volunteer in the media center if you are interested in volunteering for field trips or in the classroom.

AIG (Academically and Intellectually Gifted Program)

- Mrs. Chambliss, AIG Teacher
- For general information about the AIG program and to meet the teacher, please visit the Media Center.
- For specific questions, please email her at mchambliss@wcpss.net.